1 Name

The Society is called Anglo-Saxons Friendly Society Limited.

2 Registered Office

The Society's registered office is to be situated in England and Wales. The address of the registered office is The Old Rectory, Northfleet, Gravesend, Kent, DA11 8HN.

3 Purposes

The purposes of the Society shall be the carrying on of the classes of business and other activities set out in Schedule 2 to the Act. Any such business or activity:

- (a) is to be carried on by the Society with a view to the provision, for its Members and such persons connected with its Members as may be prescribed in the rules of insurance and other benefits; and
- (b) is to be funded by voluntary subscriptions from the Members, with or without donations.

In addition, the Society may carry on:

- (c) social or benevolent activities which are not inconsistent with the other purposes of the Society;
- (d) group insurance; and
- (e) reinsurance of risks for any other friendly society.

The Society may form subsidiaries, take part with others in forming bodies corporate to be jointly controlled by it, and may otherwise acquire, or keep control or joint control of, bodies corporate.

All of the Society's purposes may be carried on both within and outside the United Kingdom.

4 Powers

The Society shall have all such powers as are from time to time available for adoption by or granted to incorporated friendly societies in accordance with the Legislation including all those which are incidental or conducive to carrying out its purposes.

5 Limitation of Liability of Members

The liability of the members is limited to the amount of any subscription to the Society which is outstanding. No subscription of a Member shall be recoverable at law except on the winding up of the Society.
